Dear Dr Burleigh,

Many thanks for your letter of the 16th ultimo. What a tangled skein old records offer us. It seems to me that your letter involves three men named James Harris - one an old man, formerly of Belleville who died at Cold Creek in 1858 age 90, another who built your house and the Mechanic's Institute who would seem to be my wife's great grandfather although I had always heard of him as a general storekeeper and not as a general contractor and tailor (surely an odd combination) and the third a clerk of Kemptville. It is just possible that the first named above was the father of our great grandfather although I have never run into any family tradition of relatives other than his own immediate family. He came from Scotland to Bath with wife and three children about 1834. But it is just possible that the older James Harris and Abraham Harris were kinsmen. I think we would have heard about it if they were. In our experience the Harrises were clannish folk and had their family relationships well sorted out. It seems odd that it was James Harris the tailor and not Abraham Harris the carpenter that built your house.

Re the Mellow house also built by James Harris, it would seem that J.M. Harris (of Newburg, N.Y., painter) and James Harris (Kemptville, clerk) might be my wife's great uncles. Great grandfather Harris died in 1863 and it is possible that the Mellow property came into his son's hands. My wife had great uncles John Morrison Harris who died at Syracuse N.Y. and who is buried with his father in our plot in Mount Pleasant, Toronto, and Rev. James Harris, Rector of Kemptville whom I hardly recognized under that old designation of clerk (? in holy orders).

I suppose there may be some simple explanation of the attendance of Dr Kennedy when James Harris sickened and died. It must have been a huge bill that would involve the loss of a building. I do know that great grandfather Harris died in the home of his daughter, Mrs Peter Glassford, in Vaughan Township north of Toronto in 1863, but I have no knowledge of how long he lived there before his death. I may be able to tap a source of information and will try and find out immediately. We shall certainly bring your most interesting letter with us when next we visit Bath so that we may sort out these buildings. Whereabouts is the corner of Queen & Davy Streets. I suppose on the north side of the street somewhere east of your house.

Of course I cannot speak with any authority about your house. We were in Bath about 15 years ago and an old man assured us at that time that yours was the Harris home and it seems to me that

and which corner
was the house

an old cousin, now deceased, assured us that our grandmother was married from there.

I had a note from Mrs Gutzeit the other day telling me of her projected visit to the old country. I hope she has a pleasant trip. She also told me that she had shewn my CORWIN SILBERTHORN SAGA to you. When I was compiling that I had occasion to write to the archives at Ottawa and I found that my correspondent was also a native of Stamford Township near Niagara Falls in which a good deal of my ~~story~~ story was laid. Anyway Mr Ernest Green, F.R.Hist.S, my correspondent, told me that so many people write family stories and local history including all the embroideries and not verifying the facts and begged me not to follow suit telling me that "if it's not true it isn't history". I never forgot that admonition. It would seem to me that you follow that admonition too and that some later historian of the town of Bath and of the county of Lennox & Addington will, when he comes across your notes, rise up and call you blessed.

My wife joins me in kindest regards and best wishes for Mrs Burleigh and yourself.

Yours very sincerely,

Dear Dr Burleigh,

When I was in Toronto after seeing you in Bath in August I came across two books that might be of interest to you especially so seeing that your researches are reaching towards sources in the old country.

The first was a book in the reference branch of the Toronto Public Library on College Street entitled
HOW TO TRACE A PEDIGREE IN THE BRITISH ISLES by H. Crofton.
There is quite a large genealogical library in the Toronto Reference Library. They have some quite interesting volumes of the Visitations by the College of Arms in the various English counties. In the troublous time after the Wars of the Roses when the old aristocracy was largely killed off (one of the peerages states that it is rarely that an English family can trace back indubitably to Norman times, despite the fact that many claim such descent) there were many Newcomes who posed as gentlemen and the kings of Arms of the College of Arms used to go out and invite all and sundry to submit their pedigrees and claims for judgment. There must have been many red faces when the officers clearly stated that the applicant was "no gent". If you can tie into any of these families (as I have had the luck to do both for myself and for my wife) that were certified by the College of Arms you will get a very interesting pedigree. Some of the tables in these visitations are very elaborate.

The other book was THE HANDY BOOK OF GENEALOGISTS by Walter M. Everton of 518 N. Main Street, Logan, Utah and I believe one can get it for one dollar. It specializes of course on tracing American pedigrees in the U.S.A. but it also had some information about tapping English and Scottish sources.

Incidentally if you come across any further information re the Harris family I would appreciate it very much if you would pass it on.

I expect that the Gutzeit Memorial Window will now be installed in St. John's Church. We went to see it while it was being made at McCausland's in Toronto. It will be very lovely in its proper place.

I suppose that all the excitement of the Burleigh wedding has now passed into history. My wife joins me in wishing your daughter and her husband lots of happiness and not more than their fair share of troubles.

Mrs Jenkinson joins me in kindest regards and every good wish for Mrs Burleigh and yourself.

Yours very sincerely,

J. Hayes Jenkinson

Dear Dr.

I am enclosing a new cheque to replace the one that was returned to you from my former bank Acct. in Willowdale

I am sorry that this caused you some inconvenience and will be very glad to hear from your daughter re the Harris family.

Perhaps when I am writing I should set a limit of $25<sup>00</sup> on her investigation. although if she has already exceeded this I would not object.

With my best regards to you & yours

Yours sincerely

Dear Doctor.

I thank you for your kind letter of Dec. 5, 1971 and please excuse my procrastination in replying, I wanted to make some visits to the U.E.L. offices here before replying.

You mention Dame Rankin who was in the same year "Arts 24" as I was in. We were good friends and talked over our possible relationship but thought it very doubtful. Because my branch of the family consisted of two officers in the British army, a colonel and an ensign who came out to fight the Americans in the Revolutionary War. Family tradition says they were "scouts". I believe they settled first on Amherst Island, and later came to Prince Edward County.

I knew George Marsh quite well at Queen's, he was in both Arts and Medicine and I took classes with him. I am glad to hear something about him.

I have tried to remember you, and I

I believe they stayed some years in Vermont before coming to Prince Edward County. I understand that during the war of 1812 he was regarded as an American sympathizer and was watched by the military authorities. Dear Dr Beuligh.

Mr Chard of The U.E.L Association suggested that I write to you regarding my great grand father Henry Harris who came to Upper Canada in the late 1700's or early 1800's. and settled on a farm at West Lake, in Hallowell Township Prince Edward County.

I believe that he was a Quaker and that his father John Harris had a farm in Kings County, Long Island, and was one of the signatories to the Declaration of Loyalty to the British Crown in Nov. 1776.

The son Henry Harris (1780-1861) married Martha Stricker and came to Upper Canada, and may have stayed some time in Vermont, along with the Bela Johnson family and the Jackson family.

I am interested in knowing when and how the Harris family came to Upper Canada.

I hope that my request does not cause you too much trouble.

N.B. I believe the Rankin family came up about the same time. (two brothers, soldiers,) and may have stayed on Amherst Island of a while.

Mr. Geo. P. Rankin, C. A.,
23 Johnston Ave.,
Willowdale, Ont.

Dear sir:

Your recent letter requires a reply. I graduated from Queen's in 1926. I have been living in Bath since 1935, after nine years in U. S. A. As you can suspect, I am not a young man. For more than forty years I have been interested in genealogy of Bay of Quinte families. I have built up a filing cabinet containing more than 300 files on different families. These files I have made available to any person who wishes to review them. If, however, people at distant points wish information from them, my daughter makes search at $3.00 per hour, which is reasonable.

I have looked through two files, Harris and Stryker, but do not locate John Harris or his son, Henry, nor Martha Stricker. I did not go into the many records of Prince Edward County people at this time. I have a great deal of notes marriage, baptism and burial records covering the County. These, and other sources, should be of value in discovering your people.

I can say, at this time, that these people--I mean the John Harris does not seem to be a U. S. Loyalist. Even this might be altered by further search. One Stryker family was Loyalist, namely Samson Stricker. He settled in Prince Edward County, but there is no daughter named Martha. She may have been a sister.

The Rankins are an early family in this area. Dave Rankin, late of Collins Bay, was an old friend. These Rankins were connected with the McQuinn family. Do you belong to this family?

If it is agreeable to you, I can turn my daughter on a search for you. The fee of $3.00 per hour is reasonable, and can be limited to a certain amount, after which a decision can be made as to whether or not the search should be continued.

I attended my class union (reunion, I mean) last September. Those present had dwindled to twelve.

By the way, do you know a man named Marsh, who graduated in Medicine in 1928 or 9. His mother was a Rankin, of Collins Bay. He now resides in Brooklyn.

Thanks for your letter.

Sincerely,
